Sauren Stable Absolute Return – Factsheet

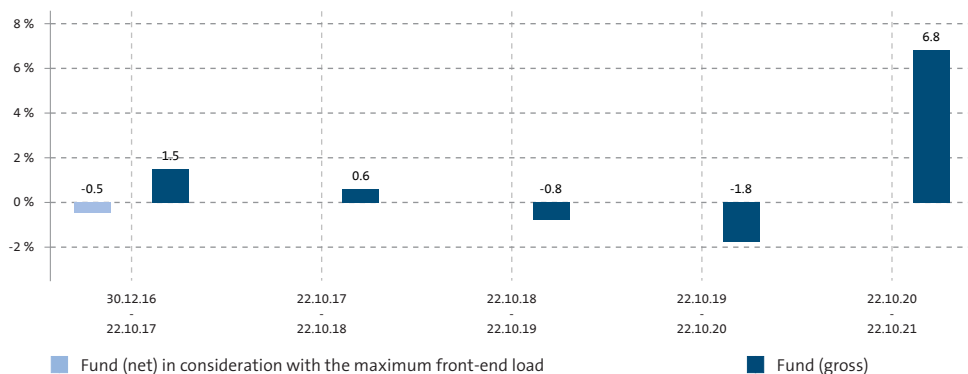

As at: 22.10.2021

Investment profile

Sauren Stable Absolute Return is a conservative asset management fund of funds with an absolute return concept and is a suitable investment option to cover the absolute return segment with a longer-term investment horizon. The portfolio is broadly diversified and predominantly invested in absolute return funds with different asset classes and strategies. Detailed information on the investment policy can be taken from the most recent sales prospectus.

The fund selection is done according to Sauren's established person-related investment philosophy, with a focus on the skills of the fund managers in consideration of the asset under management.

Notes on the performance

Source: CleverSoft FondsDB, Sauren Fonds-Research AG; As at: 22 October 2021

The Investor would like to buy shares for 1,000.-- € and due to a 2 % front-end load the total payable amount rises to 1,020.-- €. The gross performance (BVI method) is based on the published redemption prices of the Fund of Funds, which includes all costs incurred at the fund level (e.g. management fee), the net performance also includes the front-end load. The front-end load is only payable at the day of investment and therefore reduces the performance in the first year. In the following years no front-end load is considered, as such the net performance is not displayed in the bar chart as it is equal to the gross performance. Additional costs may be incurred at the investor level (e.g. custody costs). If the front-end load were taken into account in the line chart the performance in the chart would be lower.

The fund is subject to heightened volatility, due to composition. Consequently, unit price may fluctuate sharply in either direction within short periods of time. The share class was launched in 2016.

Past performance is not a reliable indicator of future performance.

Net Equity Exposure as at 31 August 2021

Indicative Net Equity Exposure 19.2 %

The indicative net equity exposure is calculated based on the weighted net equity exposure of each target fund as well as the instruments held by the fund of funds. This includes direct equity exposure as well as exposure via derivatives. The calculation of the net equity exposure is depended on the supply and the quality of the data as well as on the point in time when the data is supplied by the individual target fund. As such the indicative net equity exposure is always to be treated as a rough estimate based on the preceding month end.

Explanations of Sauren ESG-Scoring

The proprietary Sauren ESG scoring process is applied to all target funds. The process seeks to determine the extent to which the manager of a target fund includes environmental aspects, social aspects and principles of sustainable corporate governance (ESG) in their investment decisions, without the result having a direct impact on investment decisions at the fund of funds level. The ESG scoring process is not designed to serve as a seal of quality. Rather, it is aimed at raising awareness of ESG criteria and their inclusion amongst target fund managers. You can find further information on the process on the website at www.sauren.de. The fund does not pursue a dedicated ESG strategy.

¹ The minimum equity participation rate is relevant for the German tax classification and does not offer a direct conclusion about the equity market exposure of the fund. The tax treatment is also dependent on the personal circumstances of the individual investor and may be subject to change in future.

² From this fee, the management company as well as the central administration agent and the custodian are paid.

³ The risk and reward profile uses a ratio based on volatilities (see the KIID/Wesentliche Anlegerinformationen). This risk indicator relies on historical data and cannot be used as a basis upon which to forecast future performance. 1 represents low risk and a potentially lower reward and 7 stands for high risk and a potentially higher reward.

⁴ The sales agent's risk class assessment is not the same as the risk profile in the sales prospectus and the risk and reward profile in the KIID (Wesentliche Anlegerinformationen) and is carried out from the point of view of an investor whose base currency is the same as that of the share class. 1 stands for low risk, 7 for high risk.
