Eckhard Sauren (born 1971) established Sauren Finanzdienstleistungen in 1991 and specialised in the independent analysis of fund managers and their products.

As a fund manager, Mr Sauren is responsible for the funds of funds of the Sauren Group and is regarded as a pioneer of the qualitative fund (manager) analysis. With the launch of Sauren Global Growth in March 1999, he brought one of the first funds of funds approved for public sale in Germany to market. Furthermore, Sauren has played a pioneering role in the investment sector on a number of occasions, most recently with the launch of Sauren Absolute Return, a fund of funds investing in the “new generation” of absolute return funds. The funds of funds for which he is responsible have shown sustained above-average performance.

In his role as a fund manager, he has been honoured with numerous awards, as have the Sauren funds of funds. For instance, in 2005 Mr Sauren was selected by Citywire as one of the top 100 fund managers in Europe. In 2010, he was awarded an A rating by Citywire and in 2011, Mr Sauren was named one of the “minds of the decade” by financial magazine €uro. With his extensive experience, he is valued as a recognised expert by specialist media and for conferences.
